GIUMARRA TO OFFER ORGANIC PEACHES THIS SPRING

Giumarra of Reedley will supply Certified Organic peaches from Mexico

LOS ANGELES, CA – March 24, 2008 – Giumarra of Reedley announced today that it will offer Certified Organic peaches from Mexico this spring to complement its California stonefruit season.

“We are excited about this new opportunity because it allows us early entrance into the market,” said Mr. Eric Blaylock, General Manager of Giumarra Reedley. “We are offering our customers organic supplies and bridging the gap between Chile and California.”

The organic peaches will be available from mid-April through mid-May. They are grown in Sonora, Mexico and will be shipped from Giumarra’s facility in Nogales, Ariz.

In addition to providing organic peaches, Giumarra will also offer conventional supplies of Mexican peaches.
