GIUMARRA CENTRAL SERVICES OFFERS EXPANDED SERVICES

LOS ANGELES, CA - October 11, 2006 – Giumarra Central Services, a joint venture between Central Refrigerated Services of Salt Lake City, Utah, and the Giumarra Companies of Los Angeles, today announced that their trucking services are expanding to offer a full nationwide service.

Roger Saldivar, General Manager of Giumarra Trucking, said, “We are able to offer transcontinental lanes to fulfill any transportation requirement of customers and suppliers.”

Mr. Saldivar noted that Giumarra Trucking is using iTradeNetwork’s Traffic Management Solution which assists customers in reducing the total costs of purchasing transportation, distribution, spoilage and inventory. Among the many features offered are lane rate and carrier management, load building and optimization, cross docking and GPS tracking.

Mr. Kurt Paulsen of Giumarra Central Services noted that the joint venture had 1,500 Central Refrigerated tractors and 2,500 refrigerated 53-foot trailers. “In addition to the trucking,” Paulsen said, “we also have rail capability.”
